PERFORMANCE NOTES

Arabic, Aramaic, Hebrew and Greek texts are given in English transliteration.

In movements 6 (Now my life is only weeping) and 9 (Are you lost out in darkness?) ch is pronounced as in Scots loch.

The contralto solo part may be sung by a mezzo-soprano with the requisite range.

Optional parts for 'ethnic' woodwind instruments are included in movements 2 and 9. It is strongly emphasised, however, that Stabat Mater can be performed without these ethnic or improvisational elements since the full score incorporates alternative melodic material written out for standard orchestral instruments. Further information is included in the full score.

COMPOSER'S NOTE

Stabat Mater is a 13th-century Roman Catholic poem attributed to Jacopone da Todi. Its title is an abbreviation of the first line, Stabat Mater dolorosa ('the sorrowful mother was standing'). This text, one of the most powerful and immediate of medieval poems, meditates on the suffering of Mary, Jesus Christ's mother, during his crucifixion.

It has been set to music by many composers, among them Haydn, Dvořák, Vivaldi, Rossini, Pergolesi, Gounod, Penderecki, Poulenc, Szymanowski, Alessandro Scarlatti, Domenico Scarlatti and Verdi.

In addition, I have set six texts that lie outside the original poem. These comprise a choral arrangement of the Ave verum that I originally composed for Bryn Terfel; And the Mother did weep, comprising a single line of mine sung in English, Hebrew, Latin, Greek, and Aramaic (the common language of the period in the Middle East); Lament by Carol Barratt, written especially for this work; Incantation, semi-improvised in nature and sung partly in early Arabic; then two settings of ancient texts, revised into the original Stabat Mater rhyming scheme by the poet Grahame Davies, which is sung in both English and Aramaic.

Of the two ancient texts Are you lost out in darkness? comes from the Epic of Gilgamesh, which is the world's oldest written story, recorded on clay tablets in the 7th century BCE, and based on material from the third millennium BCE. It is from the ancient Babylonian civilisation, which means, of course, that it has come from what is now Iraq, so it has real resonance for our current time. It tells the story of the hero Gilgamesh and his exploits. The central point is the cursing and subsequent death of Gilgamesh's friend and companion, Enkidu. Gilgamesh laments him bitterly and, stricken with the fear of death, goes in search of immortality, ultimately without success. The extract set is where Gilgamesh laments his friend.

Now my life is only weeping is by Jalal al-Din Rumi, the 13th-century Persian mystic poet, for whom grief was a central fact of his personal history. He had an intense relationship with a spiritual mentor called Shams al-Din Tabrizi whose apparent murder turned Rumi into a poet and mystic who sought consolation in the Divine.

The scoring of Stabat Mater features ancient instruments and modes from the Middle East/Holy Land: percussion such as the darbuka, def, doholla and riq; the double-reed woodwind instrument the mey; and, alongside western harmony, scales or modes (maqams) such as Hijaz and Bayati. For performance purposes optional alternative scoring for standard orchestral instruments is included.

1. Cantus lacrimosus

*Stabat Mater dolorosa
juxta crucem lacrimosa,
dum pendebat Filius.*

*Cujus animam gementem,
contristatam et dolentem,
pertransivit gladius.*

*O quam tristis et afflita
fuit illa benedicta mater Unigeniti!*

*Quae maerebat et dolebat
pia Mater dum videbat
nati poenas incliti.*

At the cross her station keeping,
stood the mournful mother weeping,
close to Jesus to the last.

Through her heart, his sorrow sharing,
all his bitter anguish bearing,
now at length the sword has passed.

O how sad and sore distressed
was that Mother, highly blest,
of the sole-begotten One.

Christ above in torment hangs,
she beneath beholds the pangs
of her dying glorious Son.

2. Incantation (Arabic)

*Salli li ajlinaa,
ya qaddisa Maryam,
ya walidat Allah,
al adharaal adhara,
salli li ajlinaa.*

Pray for us,
O Holy Mary,
O mother of God,
O virgin of virgins,
pray for us.

3. Vedit Jesum in tormentis

*Quis est homo qui non fleret, Matrem Christi si videret
in tanto suppicio?*

*Quis non posset contristari,
Christi Matrem contemplari
dolentum cum Filio?*

*Pro peccatis suae gentis
vidit Jesum in tormentis, et flagellis subditum.*

*Vedit suum dulcem natum
moriendo desolatum,
dum emisit spiritum.*

*Eia Mater, fons amoris,
me sentire vim doloris
fac, ut tecum lugeam.*

*Fac, ut ardeat cor meum
in amando Christum Deum, ut sibi complaceam.*

Is there one who would not weep,
whelmed in miseries so deep,
Christ's dear Mother to behold?

Can the human heart refrain from partaking in her pain,
in that Mother's pain untold?

For the sins of his own nation,
she saw Jesus wracked with torment,
all with scourges rent.

She beheld her tender child,
saw him hang in desolation,
till his spirit forth he sent.

O thou Mother! fount of love!
Touch my spirit from above,
make my heart with thine accord:

make me feel as thou hast felt;
make my soul to glow and melt
with the love of Christ my Lord.

4. Lament (Carol Barratt)

*Feeling all the grief and sorrow
We live life with shadows in our hearts and minds,*

with tears that wait to fall when sorrow in the world is more than we can truly bear.

*We hear the cries of children,
we see death cast shadows on their hearts and minds,
as mothers in their grief stand crying,
weeping, weeping, crying,
crying, weeping, weeping for this world.*

*On our bed of thorns such sorrow must surely end,
our tears can wash away the sins of the world,
no more crying, weeping, weeping, crying,
crying, weeping, weeping in this world, this world.*

5. Sancta Mater

*Sancta Mater, istud agas, crucifixi fige plagas
cordi meo valide.*

*Tui nati vulnerati
tam dignati pro me pati poenas mecum divide.*

*Fac me tecum pie flere
crucifijo condolere,
donec ego vixero.*

*Juxta crucem tecum stare
et me tibi sociare
in planctu desidero.*

Holy Mother! pierce me through,
in my heart each wound renew
of my Saviour crucified:

let me share with thee his pain,
who for all my sins was slain,
who for me in torments died.

Let me mingle tears with thee,
mourning him who mourned for me,
all the days that I may live:

by the cross with thee to stay,
there with thee to weep and pray,
is all I ask of thee to give.

6. Now my life is only weeping

(Rumi, sung in English & Aramaic)

*Now my life is only weeping,
like a candle melting,
like a flute my cries are song.*

*Barchay balchoorrd hasha haina, sharach barmooth shaooth shra,
barmooth baroof rauvai kal.*

7. And the Mother did weep

(Karl Jenkins)

Vehaeym bachetah (Hebrew)

Lacrimavit Mater (Latin)

Warkath hahi imma (Aramaic)

Kai eklausen he meter (Greek)

8. Virgo virginum

*Virgo virginum praeclara, mihi iam non sis amara;
fac me tecum plangere.*

Virgin of all virgins blest!
Listen to my fond request:
let me share thy grief divine.

9. Are you lost out in darkness?

(anon, sung in English & Aramaic)
*Are you lost out in darkness?
Is your sleep, your silence, endless?
Can you no more hear my voice?*

*Ahtu sheereek bercheshka?
Damkuthak shetkaak dalalam?
Meshar arlam mashma kaalee?*

10. Ave Verum

*Ave verum corpus natum
de Maria Virgine.
Vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum
fluxit aqua et sanguine.
Esto nobis praegustatum
mortis in examine.*

Hail, true body,
born of the Virgin Mary,
truly suffered, sacrificed
on the cross for mankind,
whose pierced side
flowed with water and blood,
be for us a foretaste
in the trial of death.

*Jesu dulcis! Jesu pie,
Fili Mariae.
Amen.*

Sweet Jesus! Blessed Jesus,
Son of Mary.
Amen.

11. Fac, ut portem Christi mortem

*Fac, ut portem Christi mortem,
passionis fac me sortem,
et plagas recolere.*

Let me, to my latest breath,
in my body bear the death
of your dying son divine.

*Fac me plagis vulnerari,
Fac me cruce inebriari et cruento Filii.*

Wounded with his every wound,
steep my soul till it hath swooned
in his very blood away.

12. Paradisi gloria

*Flammis ne urar succensus, per te, Virgo, sim defensus
in die judicii.*

Be to me, O Virgin, nigh,
lest in flames I burn and die,
in his awful Judgment Day.

*Christe, cum sit hinc exire,
da per Matrem me venire
ad palmam victoriae.*

Christ, when thou shalt call me hence,
by thy Mother my defence,
by thy cross my victory.

*Quando corpus morietur,
fac, ut animae donetur
paradisi gloria. Amen.
Alleluia.*

When my body dies,
let my soul be granted
the glory of Paradise. Amen.
Alleluia.

Musical score for vocalise 'Me-shar?'. The score consists of four staves: soprano, alto, tenor, and bass. The soprano and alto staves have treble clefs, while the tenor and bass staves have bass clefs. The time signature is common time (indicated by '4'). The vocal parts sing 'Me - shar?' in unison. The piano accompaniment consists of three staves, each with a bass clef and a common time signature. The piano parts play sustained notes and chords.

Continuation of the musical score for vocalise 'Me-shar?'. The vocal parts continue to sing 'Me - shar?' in unison. The piano accompaniment consists of three staves, each with a bass clef and a common time signature. The piano parts play sustained notes and chords. The vocal parts sing 'Me-shar ar-lam mash-ma kaa' followed by 'lee?' and then repeat the phrase. The piano parts play eighth-note patterns.

The score consists of four staves. The top two staves are in treble clef, the third is in alto clef, and the bottom is in bass clef. Measure 64 starts with a rest followed by eighth notes. Measures 65 and 66 show rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are written below the staves, corresponding to the vocal parts.

The score consists of four staves. The top three staves have rests throughout the measure. The bottom staff has a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. A large oval-shaped fermata is placed over the end of the staff, indicating that the note should be sustained.

KARL JENKINS STABAT MATER

Karl Jenkins

Karl Jenkins draws on a wide range of musical training and experience. After a classical training at Cardiff University, Wales, and the Royal Academy of Music, London, he worked as a jazz musician with Soft Machine and Ronnie Scott, among others. His Adiemus projects have consistently enjoyed global success with 15 gold and platinum awards, and The Armed Man: A Mass for Peace has been performed by thousands around the world.

Karl has received commissions from the Royal Ballet, Bryn Terfel, HRH The Prince of Wales, London Symphony Orchestra, Evelyn Glennie and Lesley Garrett. In 2004 he entered Classic FM's 'Hall of Fame' at no 8 and has been in the top ten both in 2005 and 2006, the highest position for a living composer. He was awarded an OBE in 2005 for services to British music and given Doctorate by University of Wales in 2006.

Stabat Mater

Looking outside the purely Western European tradition for inspiration and freshness, Karl Jenkins sets the 13th-century Stabat Mater text in Latin and English and has extended it to a universal depiction of grief with six other texts, some of them from ancient sources, in a variety of languages. The scoring is for voices and modern symphony orchestra augmented by indigenous instruments such as the darabuca [hand drum] and riq [small tambourine], and the mey [woodwind].

The work has been recorded by EMI Classics, performed by the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and Choir, the EMO Choir of Helsinki, with soloists Jurgita Adamonyte and Belinda Sykes, conducted by the composer.
